Section BStructure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document

(e.g. trust deed, constitution)

The Group's governing documents are those of the The Scout Association. They consist of a Royal Charter, which in turn gives authority to the Bye Laws of the Association and The Policy, Organisation and Rules of The Scout Association.

How the charity is constituted

(e.g. trust, association, company)

The Group is a trust established under its rules which are common to all Scouts.

Trustee selection methods

(e.g. appointed by, elected by)

The Trustees are appointed in accordance with the Policy, Organisation and Rules of The Scout Association. Policy, Organisation and Rules (POR)

Additional governance issues (optional information but encouraged as best practice)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

The Group is managed by the Group Trustee Board, the members of which are the 'Charity Trustees' of the Scout Group which is an educational charity. As charity trustees they are responsible for complying with legislation applicable to charities. This includes the registration, keeping proper accounts and making returns to the Charity Commission as appropriate.

Policies and procedures adopted for:
a) the induction and training of trustees;
b) trustee' consideration of major risks and the systems and procedures to manage them

The group is managed by an elected board of trustees, comprising Group Chairperson, Group Lead Volunteer, Group Treasurer and other appointed Trustees. Parents' representatives and others may be nominated onto the committee for their knowledge or skills. The Trustee Board meets at least 3 times a year.

Members of the Trustee Board complete Being a Scouts Trustee learning within the first 6 months of joining the Board.

This Group Trustee Board exists to make sure the charity is well-managed, risks are assessed and mitigated, buildings and equipment are in good working order, and everyone follows legal requirements and the organisation's policies and rules. Their support helps other volunteers run high-quality and safe programmes that gives young people skills for life.

Section C	Objectives and activities
Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document	The Purpose of Scouting Scouting exists to actively engage and support young people in their personal development, empowering them to make a positive contribution to society. The Values of Scouting As Scouts we are guided by these values: Integrity - We act with integrity; we are honest, trustworthy and loyal. Respect - We have self-respect and respect for others. Care - We support others and take care of the world in which we live. Belief - We explore our faiths, beliefs and attitudes. Co-operation - We make a positive difference; we co-operate with others and make friends. The Scout Method Scouting takes place when young people, in partnership with adults, work together based on the values of Scouting and: - enjoy what they are doing and have fun - take part in activities indoors and outdoors - learn by doing - share in spiritual reflection - take responsibility and make choices - undertake new and challenging activities - make and live by their Promise.
Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects	We have 3 active sections to which we have added a very successful Explorer unit working with 1st / 6th Edgware. We have a thriving group with programmes including camps and scouting activities. Maintained numbers and over-achieved minimum required to be viable <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Successful running of Dragons Explorer unit jointly with 1st/6th Edgware • Number of Young Leaders, notably contribution to achieving Duke of Edinburgh Awards • Updating our security system and digitising our records. • Subs have been kept as low as possible. Our Leaders have been amazing in supporting our Young Leaders, who have been developed and performed exceptionally well and have been able to put this towards their Duke of Edinburgh award achievements. It was warming to note that former 1st Stanmore Scouts who have maintained their commitment to the Group have returned to support trips and activities as Leaders one who has gone to University will be joining a local Scout Group as a Leader. Trustees would like to express their gratitude to all Leaders and Volunteers for yet another year of (increasing) commitment and hard work. More details by section will be given at the AGM.

Section EFinancial Review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Reserves Policy

The Scout Group's Policy on Reserves is to hold sufficient resources to continue the activities of the Group for a period of at least 12 months in the event that income and fundraising activities fall short of our requirements. We continue to hold funds on reserve in the event that building works are required. Given the age of our building it is likely that significant works will be required at some point in the near future and the Trustees consider it prudent to hold funds on reserve to cover this.

Further financial review details (optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);

- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;

- investment policy and objectives;

Investment Policy

The Group's Income and Expenditure is very small and as a consequence does not have sufficient funds to invest in longer-term investments such as stocks and shares. The Group has therefore adopted a low risk strategy to the investment of its funds. All funds are held in cash using only mainstream banks or building societies.

The Group Trustee Board regularly monitors the levels of bank balances and the interest rates received to ensure the group obtains maximum value and income from its banking arrangements. Occasionally this may involve using an account that requires a period of notice before funds may be withdrawn, before doing so the Group Trustee Board considers the cash flow requirements.

The Group does not have sufficient funds to invest in longer term investments. The Group has therefore adopted a risk averse strategy to the investment of its funds. All funds are held in cash using only mainstream banks or building societies.
